Burroughs
"Visible"

DOES your competitor down the street use a Burroughs? Is he finding out more of the fundamental facts about his business than you are about yours?

Hurry up! A Burroughs is bought by someone somewhere every six minutes.

No business man buys an adding machine unless he knows just how it is going to be used.

A demonstration of what a Burroughs Adding Machine will do for you, in your office, on your own work, costs you nothing except the asking.

If we cannot show you, we do not expect you to place an order. In fact, the word "order" won't be mentioned by us unless you wish it.

May we have 10 minutes of your time?

THE City Directory is the most effective and most economical method of reaching all the people all the time. Those who buy without looking at the classified list of those who sell do themselves great injustice. The classified lists in the Business Directory form the best Buyers' Guide on earth. A modern up-to-date method of getting what you want.

our Rugs and Carpets, Cleansed and Repaired

OUR METHOD of cleansing Oriental Rugs is an Original Persian process. It not only removes all accumulated dirt, dust, stains, spots, but enhances the true Oriental treasure with a beautiful silky, glossy luster, softening and blending the colors. Repairing receives special attention. We weave new edges and fringes, match colors, repair moth holes as only natives can do it. Let our representative call and examine your rugs and carpets. Estimates furnished. Our charges are moderate.

Lighting Fixtures That Illuminate and Decorate

CHOOSING correct Lighting Fixtures is an Art and a Science. From an Artistic standpoint Lighting Fixtures should Harmonize with the general scheme of decoration and express the Motif of the decorator. From a Scientific standpoint, they should distribute an even, soft, mellow light. Correct Lighting Fixtures lend a pleasing harmony to the furnishings and decorations by day, and display them to advantage by night.

We are Lighting Fixture specialists and prepared to focus our efforts upon your problem. The architecture of your house should govern the Design of your lighting fixtures. Colonial and Old English houses demand fixtures in keeping with their design. Our line of Sample Fixtures includes many different styles in Period, Old English and Colonial effects. Call and examine them at our show room.

it is lower than many because it is located beyond the high rent district.

Good News

Everyone likes to read it. If you think of buying a diamond solitaire, see that little store with the large business and high reputation for honest dealing for 37 years. I tell you the truth. There is none in existence. But I offer only fine quality at a small profit, according to my expenses. Seeing is believing.

Stay in bed until your house is warm

THE AUCLO FURNACE CLOCK gives you this treat every winter morning

It is simply an alarm clock that rings up the dampers instead of the sleeper

Can be connected in 5 minutes to a steam, hot air or hot water heater and starts heat circulating any time desired

A pull of the chain adjusts all drafts and dampers. It's actually too simple to get out of order, and it retails at only $3.00 when you use Corrugated Board Boxes. For Parcel Post packages nothing equals it. Let us estimate on your requirements and submit you samples.

== THE == NEWARK EVENING NEWS

with a daily circulation of 75,000 is the best medium for the advertiser because it goes directly into the homes at a time when the family are together and can talk over intended purchases; and it reaches the buying public at a time when they are ready to consider what is advertised.

== THE == is popular alike with both
EVENING NEWS reader and advertiser because it is metropolitan in every sense, being replete with features that interest every member of the family.

== THE == is also the recognized classified advertising medium in its EVENING NEWS field. The rate for this line of business is one cent a word; no advertisement received for less than twenty cents except employment wanted. For this class of publicity one cent a word, minimum ten cents.

New Jersey Freie Zeitung

NEW JERSEY'S OWN

GREAT GERMAN DAILY

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING

(ESTABLISHED 1858.)

DAILY AND SUNDAY for Fifty-four years the "Freie Zeitung" has been an ever welcome morning visitor in the homes of the thousands of well-to-do German-Americans throughout this city and county

As a first-class family newspaper, with a capable staff, and the Associated Press telegraph and cable service, it has a powerful influence, its editorials and news matter being widely quoted and copied by other newspapers.

As an advertising medium, the high quality of its circulation, and the fact of its having an exclusive field, produces excellent results for stores, real estate agents, banks, and every good, honest proposition, as its perpetually well filled advertising columns plainly testify

Newark is a German-American city, and any advertiser who attempts to cover it without using the German-American newspaper deliberately cuts himself off from the business of a very large proportion of the population

[From "Newark the City of Industry," issued under the auspices of the Board of Trade.]

NEWARK—HISTORICAL.

Newark was founded in 1666. Its history is divided into a student course into three distinct periods. First there was the early, struggling settlement, a village from 1666 to 1700; next, the rising factor in the water-railway development, an industrial city of world-wide fame, and now comes the "epoch of modern change," the era of the great Newark with its high business possibilities of material, intellectual and moral expansion.

Until 1800 the increase in Newark's population was slow. In 1790 it was about 1,200. Ten years later it had gained 100,000. A further century later that when it was manufacturing was industry of its infancy and its numbers were only 10,000. At first an increase with an ever increasing steadiness and swiftness they began to grow, but only in population, for the industrial opportunities and private and public wealth.

It was an extraordinary figure that during the ten years ending with 1911 the population increased 41.2 per cent. compared with an increase of 15.4 per cent. for the preceding decade and 33.2 per cent. for the ten-year period ending with 1901. In 1840 the population was 71,414. Fifty years later it was 117,604. Thus, was an annual average of 1.66 per cent. In the last twenty-five years the increase in the population has been 12.11 per cent. Assuming that the future growth in population will be in the same proportion, the figure in 1936 is estimated at 200,000.

As a population has increased the industries of the city have grown. This growth has not been confined to any one class. It has been so varied that Newark today has, probably, a greater number of diversified industries than any other city in the country. These statements are not mere assertions. They are facts. It is easily possible to verify them not only by a visit to the city but by the records of the Board of Trade and the official figures of the government census bureau.

With these figures as a basis was the manner of the city's growth. In the past a century and more Newark has increased the city has prospered accordingly and spread in all directions. Hundreds of public buildings have taken the place of the old structures. Churches, schools, hospitals, equipped with up-to-date machinery, now huddle in the industrial centres where once only the bare were vacant. The old rambling structures with antiquated equipment, impeding traffic, have been replaced by modern buildings where squatters once lived in tumble-down shacks. Private residences and commercial buildings of the old size and kind are every where to be seen. The old name of city streets have been paved and sewered and lined with trees. Churches have grown in number and size. The old city has been replaced by a new one, but the old city has not been forgotten. Wherever one looks are to be seen unmistakable evidences of growth and prosperity.

With the amazing growth of Newark its population like its industries and the output of its manufactured articles has become more varied. Its population is distinctly cosmopolitan. Here the natives of every country under the sun have found and are finding a congenial home. Here also, they are finding employment to their liking and here, also, they and the native-born residents are building an home association. Through the building and loan associations which have steadily grown in size, number and resources not a few of the residents of the city have added to their own comfort and to the taxable value of the property in the municipality by building their own homes. These residences are for the most part comfortable living places and in the building of them the city has spread to the north, east, west and south with almost magical rapidity.

Its growing cosmopolitan character has made and is making Newark a veritable "city of all nations." Here the foreigner at once meets men, women and children from his native place. That this is borne out by a recent census is shown. These figures show that in the population there were 17,000 Americans, 17,000 American-born children, 17,000 American negroes, 1,000 Hebrews, 1,000 Germans, 5,498 Italians, 1,417 English, 827 Irish, 483 Scotch, 277 Polish, 257 Magyar, 2,000 Russian, 202 Swedish, 199 French, 171 Canadian, 1,000 Slovak and a fairly large representation of more than a score of other nationalities, including Chinese, Japanese, Javanese, Finnish, Guvian, Syrian, Turks, Greeks, Egyptians and American-Indian population.

With a varied population of this kind and the amazingly rapid growth of the city in all directions and in all lines of human endeavor—a growth that long ago outstripped the normal increase in the police department the city is at all times orderly and peaceful. Serious disturbances and grave breaches of the peace are therefore unknown in the life of the municipality.

Newark, says a recognized author and writer of the city, "has entered on its third epoch, and the future is as bright as the past and prosperity the like of which past generations have not have as much as dreamed, and if when we ourselves have but the faintest comprehension."

NEWARK TO-DAY is the metropolis of the State of New Jersey and ranks first in population in the United States, the census taken in 1910 giving a number of inhabitants as 147,460. It covers an area of 23.41 square miles, of which 6.48 square miles is undeveloped meadow land.

It is particularly noted for its manufactures and, in this respect, ranks eleventh in the United States in value of output.

Few, if any, communities of equal size approach it in value, variety and volume of products. Although manufacturing is its distinctive note, it is also a great insurance and financial centre.

Newark has made gigantic strides in all things which pertain to the welfare of its inhabitants, and occupies a high position among the great cities of this country in the educational, industrial and other fields.

Its educational facilities are unequalled, the number and diversity of its industries afford steady and remunerative employment.

The death rate ranks low among the municipalities of its size in the United States.

It is liberal in providing for the moral and social welfare of its citizens.
